“I am born in Vienna, Austria on October 13, 1921.

It is my strongest desire to leave a message for everyone all over the world to remember for the rest of their lives and for them to hand down to future generations.

No matter where we live, no matter what our ethnic persuasion or our religion, we pray to one God ... a God of goodness not evil...

If all of us would take time to learn about other religions and practices, we would not hate nor fear each other...

If we do not hate one another we could possibly live in harmony and create a wonderful, safer and peaceful world for our children, grandchildren and great grandchildren ...

A world without hunger, illness, global warming or ethnic cleansing... A world content with itself.

We must look into the future but not forget the past...

I am closing with a special wish for everyone ... Wishing you a wonderful day ... a wonderful life filled with joy and fond memories...

I ask you to join me in remembering my entire family who were killed during the Holocaust...

I will never forget them!”
