I arrived in England on July 6, 1939, six days before my 11th birthday. After a short stay at a hostel a christian family in the north east of England volunteered to give me a home.

I was very happy there and no attempt was made to convert me to the christian religion. I stayed with Mr. & Mrs. Ferguson for four years.

“I had confirmed that my dear parents and sister (seven years older than I) were murdered at Mali Trostinec near Minsk.”
